

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, October 17, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Miss. teacher tops in nation

House OKs bill to shield businesses

MSU looking for chief again

Miss. could execute inmate in December

Editorials

Terrorism: Not all linked with Osama, Saddam

Iraq: Oil now figuring into the equation

Hinds schools: Bond issue shaping up for Dec. 10

The Sun Herald Biloxi

House passes caps for more businesses

Coast judge says he hasn't been questioned in judicial probe

Official: Superdome can't compete in NFL

WorldCom customers ponder bolting

Federal judge orders ex-chief of Magnolia Venture to prison

Biloxi casino wants to move bankruptcy case to St. Louis

Next execution could be in December; last one cost \$11,300

House may take second look at punitive damage caps bill

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

In Mississippi, a town knows what D.C. area feels and fears

House backs 10% limit for juries

Hattiesburg American

House panel to present tort bill

Gasoline prices on rise across Mississippi

Drug agents deserve a pay raise

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

Musgrove, students to meet for computer building

The Natchez Democrat

House OKs punitive damage caps

Magnolia Report

Republican party sues to have voice in state judicial elections 10/17